

On November 20, 2014, President Obama announced new and expanded executive actions that aim to provide immigration relief for some individuals who may not have been eligible for relief in the past.

Join us to receive the latest information on these new programs, including expanded deferred action (deferred deportation and work authorization) for childhood arrivals and parents of U.S. citizens and permanent residents.

Administrative Relief Information Session

Friday, December 5, 2014

6pm-8pm

UC San Diego

Price Center West Ballroom A

UCSD Undocumented Student Services is pleased to welcome the San Diego Immigrant Rights Consortium (SDIRC). SDIRC will be providing the content for the program.