Virtual Community Service Opportunities
During COVID-19

Many non-profit organizations offer opportunities to use your skills and talents to volunteer virtually! While the campus is not recommending in-person community service at this time, you can still make a difference! As always, please follow general safety precautions and the CDC guidelines currently in place.

If you have any questions or projects you’d like to add, please contact Andy Hoffman, CSI Community Service Program Coordinator at aphoffman@ucsd.edu. Last updated 3/19/21

UC San Diego CSI Sponsored Service

Write letters to seniors with Carrefour Companions

Did someone say free!?! The Center for Student Involvement is hosting a card making project for local San Diego seniors. Want to participate? There are three ways you can do so:

(1) Already have supplies? Simply write a letter, take a picture, and mail

(2) Don’t have supplies but want to type a letter? No problem! Open a google document, write a letter, and share it with omichael@ucsd.edu. I will print it off and send it in for you.

(3) Want to get a packet of supplies in the mail? All you have to do is fill out the following form. After you have done that we will mail you a packet with all the supplies you will need!

Once you make your cards email us a picture ucsdservice@gmail.com and post on your Instagram story (#carrefourcompanions) nominate 3 friends to do the same! Be sure to tag @getinvolveducsd so we can feature you on our Instagram story! Sign up for Carrefour Companions here.

Join community of Triton Translators and translate materials for San Diego orgs

Triton Translators is a brand new program dedicated to providing translation support for community organizations in the San Diego area.

Triton Translators is a cohort of UC San Diego students who volunteer to translate documents for San Diego community organizations. Navigate to our website for more information about the project. Please contact aphanoffman@ucsd.edu if you have any questions.

Interested in joining? Complete this interest form and someone will reach out to you.
UCSD Words Alive Page Turners

You help determine which books should be added to the program curriculum and taught in the classrooms across San Diego county by reading and reviewing titles from the Words Alive recommendation list. [Book list examples here.]

Choose books that focus on topics of identity, mental health, race, immigration, migration, courage, gratitude, forgiveness, gender, sexuality, and more.

Connect with each other, serve the community, and reflect on important issues all virtually.

For student groups: [Sign-up]. For individuals: Sign-up coming soon.

Tutor local K-12 students with UCSD HDH Wellness

We call upon UC San Diego students to volunteer to remotely tutor K-12 students in need. The sessions will take place in a Zoom meeting room where HDH W&E student coordinators will take lead, pair students with tutors, and check-in on breakout rooms as they are happening.

[More information and RSVP here.]

Mentor local K-12 students with YouSeeYou

We welcome any graduate and undergraduate enrolled at UCSD. This is an opportunity to shed some light of your major/field of study to young people looking to get a head start their professional careers and help them through the stressful process of applying to college!!

Local Service Opportunities

Please note: These opportunities below are not sponsored by the Center for Student Involvement or UC San Diego. As always, please follow general safety precautions and CDC guidelines.

International Rescue Committee Tax Preparation Volunteer

The IRC operates a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program to provide FREE tax preparation services to individuals and families with incomes below the national average who would like to get the most out of their tax return. Last tax season, the IRC in San Diego's VITA Volunteers completed more than 2,200 returns and helped our community receive more than $3.5 million in refunds. As a tax preparation volunteer, you will provide important support to individuals and families with incomes below the national average by guiding them through the tax preparation process and connecting them with other IRC resources when appropriate. You will work one-on-one with clients supporting them in navigating the ins and outs of tax preparation.

Companionship Calls by Meals on Wheels San Diego

Companionship Calls program to make lasting human connections between our volunteers and senior clients. The goal of the program is to help ease social isolation and loneliness, which has been exacerbated by COVID-19.

- Weekly 15-30 minute calls
- Volunteers call 1-3 seniors
- Companionship Calls volunteer application
- Live scan background check
- Brief training call before calls are initiated
- Completion of a call log after each call

Create works of art to beautify living spaces with PATH

You can help support PATH's Move In program by turning a house into a home. They are looking for volunteers who would like to create works of art to help beautify the living spaces of their clients. Wall decor that is created for clients’ new homes support the style and comfort of the interior setting. Any medium to create decor can be used but should be positive, supportive, and inviting.

If you are interested in creating wall decor please email sigrids@epath.org.

Join Cards Plus team with Soldier’s Angels

The Cards Plus Team is dedicated to supporting deployed service members, veterans, and their families with encouraging or celebratory cards and notes. The Cards Plus Team also joins forces with many other Soldiers’ Angels Teams to provide cards for service members, Post 9/11 wounded veterans, and military families supported by... these programs. Cards of support sent by the Team include, but are not limited to:

National/Global Service Opportunities

Please note: These opportunities below are not sponsored by the Center for Student Involvement. As always, please follow general safety precautions and the CDC guidelines currently in place.

Reach Out and Read
Join in the nationwide #ReadTogether challenge to help ease children’s anxiety from the pandemic. By making reading a daily activity, we help every child have the healthy foundation they need for success.

Provide life-saving support with The Trevor Project
In line with The Trevor Project’s mission, volunteers can staff various crisis intervention platforms to provide life-saving support for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer & questioning (LGBTQ) youth.

GoProject
Remote volunteers who are fluent in Mandarin, Cantonese, and/or Spanish to help with multi-lingual document translation and family outreach as well as providing remote volunteer tutoring services.

Assist via app with Be My Eyes
People with visual impairments or reduced eyesight – many of whom are older adults – have lost access to their regular support systems due to the COVID-19 outbreak. The Be My Eyes app allows volunteers and companies to “be the eyes” of someone in need and quickly get them the support. This opportunity requires online training and no commitment.

Engage in Community Mapping with Missing Maps
To map the most vulnerable places in the developing world, in order that international and local NGOs and individuals can use the maps and data to better respond to crises affecting the areas. This opportunity requires online training and no commitment.
Write letters with Operation Gratitude
Every year, Operation Gratitude sends 300,000+ individually addressed Care Packages to Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines, and Coast Guardsmen deployed overseas, to their children left behind, and to First Responders, New Recruits, Veterans, Wounded Heroes, and their Care Givers. Each package contains snacks, hygiene products, entertainment, and handmade items, as well as personal letters of support. This opportunity requires no online training and no commitment.

Participate in research projects on Zooniverse
The Zooniverse is the world’s largest and most popular platform for people-powered research. Examples of projects include turning a collection of handwritten correspondence between anti-slavery activists in the 19th century into texts that can be more easily read and transcribing data from hand-written museum specimen labels to map biodiversity in the Midwestern US. This opportunity requires online training and no commitment.

Listen, support, and empower with Crisis Text Line
Crisis Text Line is the free, 24/7 text line for people in crisis in the United States. The service is powered by volunteer Crisis Counselors who work remotely — anywhere with a computer and secure internet connection works. This opportunity requires a sizeable commitment of 200 hours and would be a great experience for volunteers interested in mental health and counseling.
Further Community Engagement

- Respond to xenophobia and racism resulting from the COVID-19 outbreak.
- Call your elected representatives regarding issues with COVID-19 (elaborate here)
  - Find Yours Here: https://www.house.gov/representatives/find-your-representative
- Share resources with community members seeking financial, emotional, or basic needs support
  - Community resource guide: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1mHMjAQrT_KmlCgTWKZ2F5jiNgxEzlM7iBPnn0O5ZO8/edit#heading=h.408vjoe6iq1d
- Supporting mutual aid networks of San Diego
  - At this moment of global pandemic, it is evident that structures in our society leading to inequality and systemic oppression create chaos and harm everyone. Creating new structures of collective care can help us through this period, and engaging in mutual aid is a way for us to build new social relationships that recognize the importance of our shared well-being (American Friends Service Committee).
