OSC RECEIVES AND REVIEWS REPORT
The Office of Student Conduct (OSC) receives an incident report involving UCSD Student(s) and determines whether there is reasonable cause to believe the Student Conduct Code was violated. If OSC finds reasonable cause, the report is forwarded to the Student’s Dean or his/her designee for resolution.

DEAN or DESIGNEE DETERMINES RESOLUTION OPTIONS
The Dean or designee typically assigns a Student Conduct Officer (SCO) to resolve the alleged violation(s) with the Student through an Administrative Resolution meeting. The Dean or designee may also choose to resolve the alleged violations through alternative options such as a Notice of Inappropriate Conduct, restorative justice, or mediation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RESOLUTION MEETING
After proper notice, the Student meets with the SCO discuss the alleged violations. There are three potential outcomes: the allegations are dismissed, the student accepts responsibility, or the case is referred to a Student Conduct Review.

ALLEGATIONS DISMISSED
If there is not a preponderance of the evidence to sustain all alleged violations, the SCO will dismiss the allegations with no further consequence to the Student.

STUDENT ACCEPTS RESPONSIBILITY
If the Student accepts responsibility for the alleged violations, the SCO will impose sanctions. The Student may complete the sanction(s) or submit an appeal.

STUDENT CONDUCT REVIEW
If the Student does not accept responsibility for any allegation, he/she has the right to a Student Conduct Review with a Conduct Board or a Review Officer.

Student is found responsible and sanctions are imposed by the original SCO. The Student may accept the decision and sanction(s) imposed or submit an appeal.

Student is found not responsible. All alleged violations are dismissed with no further consequence to the Student.

APPEALS PROCESS
The Student may appeal the Review decision and sanctions or the sanctions from the AR meeting to the Council of Provosts (undergraduates) or relevant Dean (graduate, medical, pharmacy, and Extension students).

DECISION ON APPEAL
Student is notified of the appeal decision in writing by the Council of Provosts or relevant Dean. The decision and/or sanction(s) may be upheld, modified, dismissed, or referred for re-hearing. All appeal decisions are final.
